

Make it in Germany

The “Welcome to Germany” portal for international
qualified professionals

www.make-it-in-germany.com

Imprint

Publisher

Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy (BMWi)
Public Relations
11019 Berlin
www.bmwi.de

Design and production

PRpetuum GmbH, Munich

Status

September 2015

Print

Silber Druck oHG, Niestetal

Illustrations

BMWi

The Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy was awarded the audit berufundfamilie® for its family-friendly staff policy. The certificate is granted by berufundfamilie gGmbH, an initiative of the Hertie Foundation.

This brochure is published as part of the public relations work of the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy. It is distributed free of charge and is not intended for sale. The distribution of this brochure at campaign events or at information stands run by political parties is prohibited, and political party-related information or advertising shall not be inserted in, printed on, or affixed to this publication.

Federal Ministry
for Economic Affairs and Energy

Federal Ministry
of Labour and Social Affairs

Bundesagentur für Arbeit

The “Welcome to Germany” portal for international qualified professionals

The Make it in Germany welcome portal is part of the Qualified Professionals Initiative managed by the Federal Ministry of Economic Affairs and Energy, the Federal Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs and the Federal Employment Agency. This Qualified Professionals Initiative supports the Federal Government’s efforts to foster a ‘culture of welcome’ and promote the targeted migration of qualified professionals.

It informs and raises awareness among the general public, businesses and qualified professionals about the need for skills, and offers a range of information and support. It also shows that if we combine all the potential in Germany and abroad, we can overcome the skills shortage. Networks, cooperative ventures and projects are also being set up to accompany the Qualified Professionals Initiative.

Nuno is from Portugal and works as an Optical Engineer in Berlin.

Working, living, learning, researching or starting a business in Germany.

Are you looking for new career opportunities? Then come to Germany! As one of the world's largest and most successful economies, Germany is a location for business and investment that can offer stable growth, exciting companies and attractive training and working conditions. Or are you a German company that would like to recruit qualified professionals from around the world? Find out more at our "Welcome to Germany" portal at www.make-it-in-germany.com/en.

For international qualified professionals: The portal illustrates how professionals from abroad can organise their move to Germany. From entering the country and finding jobs through to studying and useful everyday tips, www.make-it-in-germany.com/en offers a comprehensive range of information.

For companies: Many companies are facing the challenge of skilled labour shortages. Make it in Germany is here to answer any questions you may have on recruiting international qualified professionals and integrating them into your company. www.make-it-in-germany.com/en/for-businesses

Anastasiya
comes from Russia and is a
Lighting Applications
Engineer in Munich.

A new generation of metal halide lamps
In the rounded-off arc tube holders of the rare earth halide discharging. The new ceramic material enables higher plasma temperatures which helps to develop multiple in an arc tube. The result is higher luminous efficacy, better colour rendering and a longer life of the lamp.

Working in Germany

Which sectors currently offer the best chances for qualified professionals? Where can you find a job in Germany? What should you bear in mind when applying? In the “Working” section, you will find answers to all these questions as well as additional information.

- Quick-Check

Use this feature to quickly assess your chances of working in Germany based on your personal circumstances.

- Guide

Finding work, visas, applying for jobs, recognition of qualifications: here, you will find comprehensive information on all key topics.

- Setting up a business in Germany

Find out how you can use your business idea to become your own boss.

- Research

Discover what Germany has to offer as a research base.

Toto
was born in Indonesia
and is an engineer working as a Project Manager
in Reutlingen.

Training and learning

Germany offers young people excellent opportunities. Training or a degree can serve as the first step towards pursuing a career in Germany. In the “Training & Learning” section, you will find information on the following:

- Training

Familiarise yourself with the German dual training system.

- Studying

Five steps to doing a degree in Germany: find out how by going to www.make-it-in-germany.com/en.

- German language skills

We'll show you where and how you can learn German.

A photograph of a family in a park. A man with glasses and a colorful striped sweater is leaning over a metal slide, holding a young child. A woman is standing behind the man, smiling. The child is wearing a red and white striped shirt and dark pants. In the background, there is a green wooden play structure, a large log, and trees with autumn foliage. A yellow circular overlay is on the left side of the image.

Vinay
from India is a Senior
IT Strategy Manager and works in Bonn.

Living in Germany

Work isn't everything. We also want you and your family to feel at home in Germany. www.make-it-in-germany.com/en is full of useful information and tips to help you manage everyday life in Germany

- Housing

Everything from searching for a place to live through to rental contracts and moving house.

- Schools and child care

Find out about the child care options available in Germany.

- Banking and insurance

Be on the safe side: extensive information on insurance and old-age provision.

- Leisure

Plenty to discover: Germany has a lot to offer for you and your family.

Hotline Living and Working in Germany

By calling our hotline, you can access personalised advice on the following topics, either in German or English:

- Job searches, work and careers
- Recognition of foreign vocational qualifications
- Entry and residence
- Learning German

Hotline
Living and Working in Germany
+49 30 1815-1111

The hotline is available between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. CET from Monday to Friday. The number is +49 (0)30 1815 1111.

We look forward to taking your call.

The hotline is part of the German government's strategy for responding to demographic change and is operated jointly by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF) and the Federal Employment Agency (BA) under a cooperative arrangement between the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy (BMWi), the Federal Ministry of the Interior (BMI), the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF) and the Federal Employment Agency (BA).

It supplements existing services at www.make-it-in-germany.com/en, www.anerkennung-in-deutschland.de, www.bamf.de, www.arbeitsagentur.de and www.zav.de.

You can also visit Make it in Germany at:

YouTube

