„Consumer Behaviour“ at Europa-Institut, Department of Economics at Saarland University

Qualification Objectives: Students acquire a clear perspective and understanding of consumer behaviour and of how consumers' decisions are influenced by emotional, cognitive and unconscious processes. Students experience a multitude of possibilities to transfer their new knowledge about consumer behaviour to real-world business problems in a European context.

Content: The aim of this course is to give an overview of findings of consumer behaviour that are highly relevant to understand consumers' responses to Marketing strategies. The course intends to provide inspiration to MBA students when dealing with topics related to consumer behaviour. Also, it intends to give an up-to-date state-of-the-art overview of research on consumer behaviour to students.

Lecturer: Univ.-Prof. Dr. Andrea Gröppel-Klein has been Head of the Chair of Marketing and Director of the Institute of Consumer & Behavioural Research at Saarland University (founded by Werner Kroeber-Riel, 1969) since 2006. Since 2015, she has also been Director of the European Institute for Advanced Behavioural Management. Her research focuses include „Point of Sale Research“, „Demographic Change and the Behaviour of Older Consumers“ and „Advertising Impact Research“.

Prof. Dr. Güliz Ger has been a professor at Bilkent University in Ankara for over 20 years, in addition to numerous guest professorships in Great Britain, France, China, the USA, Australia and Denmark. Prof. Ger is also the director of the Center for Research in Transitional Societies. She is concerned with the socio-cultural dimensions of consumption and markets, especially in transitional societies/groups and the related issues of globalisation, modernity and social change.
